NAVAVANI

25 years of empowering the Young

EDITORIAL

It is with grateful hearts to God we come to you with this presentation.

There are many reasons to thank God, you, one and all.

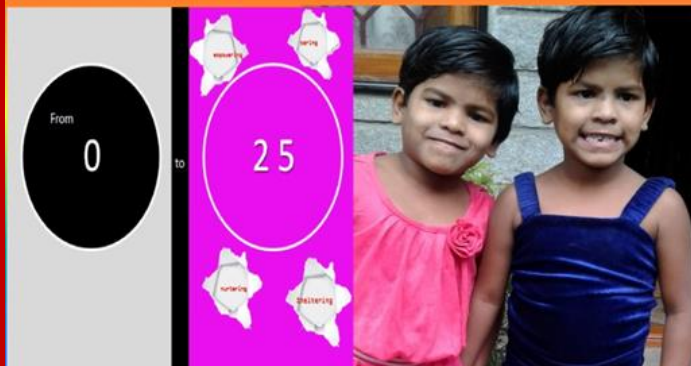

Auxilium Navajeevana non-governmental non-profitable voluntary Organization for girl children in need of care and protection of age between 06 to 18, established in 1995. The purpose of this Home is to restore the lost childhood of girl children who are at risk, due to various circumstances, live in deprivation, grow up in families that are disintegrated etc. This Home for Girl Children 'Navajeevana' significantly is giving new life, it cares for all categories of children such as homeless, the neglected, the destitute, rag pickers, child laborers, victims of child trafficking and girl children living on the streets of Bengaluru.

This year being Silver Jubilee of Navajeevana, we Salesian Sisters of Don Bosco (FMA) thank each of you for being part of this project in a great or small way and join us to share our joys of today, memories of yesterday and our hopes of many tomorrows.

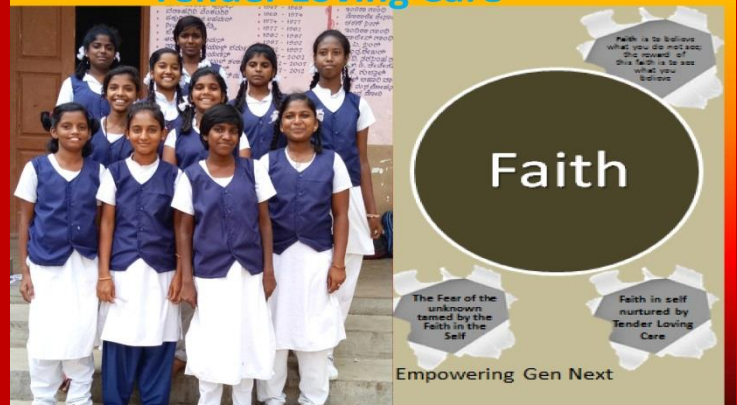

Sr. Anna Thayil, Editor – Nava Vani
